

Railway beginnings (1979)

[Music]

NARRATOR: The railway had its beginning in Australia when the first steam locomotive ran in 1854 between Melbourne and its port, Sandridge. From this small beginning, railway spread out rapidly from the capital cities to serve the needs of the growing colonies.

[Trains hooting]